

Newbury Tasting Society: A 'Bottoms-Up' View of Languedoc Wines!

Blanquette de Limoux 2009, Brut Domaine de Martinolles

A dry sparkling wine made predominantly from the Mauzac grape but with a little Chardonnay. A superb aperitif that with age develops a toasty characteristic.

Cremant de Limoux 2009, Rosé Domaine de Martinolles

An award winning blush Cremant softer than the Blanquette with hints of strawberries and summer fruits.

Mauzac 2009, Domaine de Martinolles

A still vin de pays wine made entirely from the Mauzac grape. It has a distinct element of apple in its nose but with a dryer finish.

No production of this wine in 2010 and so not currently available

Vin d'Ange 2010, Domaine de Parazols

A blend of Marsanne and Viognier to give a fresh white wine for early drinking. Ideal as an aperitif or with fish.

Special price for NEWTS November delivery: £7.50 per bottle

Viognier 2010, Domaine de Parazols

A 100% Viognier from a parcel of vines within the Minervois. This wine is perhaps more apricot (and honey) than peach and provides subtle layers of discovery to accompany hors d'œuvres, fish and white meats.

Special price for NEWTS November delivery: £9 per bottle

Cuvée Tradition 2009, Château Guilhem

A red wine from predominantly Merlot (85%) but blended with Cabernet Sauvignon. Bertrand Goudou-Guilhem commences making this wine much cooler than normal to give it a creamy nose and Bordeaux characteristics.

Price for November delivery: £8.50 per bottle

Garriguet 2006, Domaine de Martinolles

A fascinating blend of 4 grapes (Merlot, Cabernet, Syrah and Grenache) gives this wine a warming appeal. A red wine to be enjoyed with 'copains' (friends) as well as with food.

Special price for NEWTS November delivery: £9 per bottle

Domaine des Chandelles 1998, Peter and Susan Mundy - Corbières

A long term oak aged red blending Grenache and Syrah that won acclaim in the Guide Hachette. This is a big wine best with rich red meat dishes.

The end of my 1998 vintage stock so not currently available

Cuvée Vent d'Est 2001, Domaine de Cabrol - Cabardès

Syrah with Grenache and Cabernet make up this outstanding wine. Claude Carayol has won the Guide Hachette Coup de Cœur for his 2001, 2002, 2005, 2007 and 2008 vintages of this wine and he never ceases to produce outstanding wine.
